

ALABASTER DANGERMOND

AND THE SERPENT'S BLADE

THE STORY

With classes in weapons, martial arts, and secret codes, fourteen-year-old Alabaster Dangermond has spent the last five years training at a clandestine CIA prep school toward his ultimate goal—to become a real CIA secret agent.

Before his next training mission and the all-important Agent Trials, he receives a mysterious email with a video showing the murder of his parents. Thinking they died in a car crash when he was seven, Al is consumed by questions.

Will Alabaster Dangermond pass the Agent Trials and find the answers he seeks surrounding the mystery of his parents' tragic death years ago? Join Al and his friends as he unknowingly steps deeper into a web of deception to find everything he once thought true of his life turned upside down.

THE AUTHOR

Dr. Jason VanHorn is a professor of geography and the author of numerous articles and map applications. Fascinated by the interwoven fabric of people and places around the world, he loves to think about geographical interactions. Interested in security, secret intelligence, and spies, he loves to write both fiction and non-fiction. Alabaster Dangermond and the Serpent's Blade is his debut novel.

ORDERING

- 55% discount for Retailers in most regions (USA, Europe, East Asia)

- Release date: March 6, 2018

- Available in Print & eBook

Recommended Retail for Print :
$11.99

goldenwoodpress.com

- BISAC
+JNF068000 JUVENILE NONFICTION / Spies & Spying
+JUV001000 Juvenile Fiction : Action & Adventure - General
+JUV028000 Juvenile Fiction : Mysteries, Espionage, & Detective Stories

ORDER TODAY FROM INGRAM

www.ingramcontent.com/retailers/ordering